

Last Supper

Servant 1: I'm so glad that's over. That was one of the strangest Passover meals I've ever served.

Servant 2: Did you really think it was strange, I thought it was an honor to serve Jesus Christ. He was so close. One thing that did puzzle me was when he picked up a piece of bread and said "this is my body, do this in remembrance of me". Then he broke it. Do you know why that is?

Servant 3: He did something similar with a glass of wine. He raised up his goblet and said "this represents my blood it pours out for the forgiveness of your sins".

Servant 4: After that Jesus said one of his disciples was going to betray him then he accused Judas, can you believe that? Then they got up and headed to the Mount of Olives.

Servant 3: Head toward the back right door and turn off the scene light.
